COUNTY TO JOIN IN PORTOLA FESTIVAL

The County Development Association is actively at work on the plan to arouse a sentiment in favor of representation in the Portola celebration to be held in San Francisco October 22 to 25, and it is assured that the county will have one of the most brilliant displays in the great festival.

At a meeting at San Mateo last week at which over 100 county representatives were present, together with city delegates, the undertaking was given a thorough discussion and in the end a Portola Festival Association was formed consisting of ten citizens, of which C. C. Griffin is chairman and Ambrose McSweeney secretary.

The Portola envoys from San Francisco, Messrs. Carroll, Filmer, Schiller and Hickey, told the meeting of what other counties are doing and of the plans that are being carried out to make the festival a success. It is evident that the event will be a most notable one, particularly in its scenic lighting effects, the insight given of the special features of the parade to be held at night by Mr. Schiller being of much interest. Mr. Hickey reminded the meeting that it was up to the county to make a special effort towards a strong participation on account of the fact that Don Gasper de Portola first really discovered the Bay of San Francisco from our own Santa Morena Range.

Among the plans suggested for floats are the following: A view of the Spring Valley lakes and surrounding country, a float representing Portola and his band receiving their first view of the bay, a beach scene and bathers, a group of bungalows, and industrial floats.

The committee will be enlarged so as to include representatives from all parts of the county and an active campaign for county representation will shortly be under way.

SUPERVISORS HOLD SHORT ADJOURNED MEETING.

The Board of Supervisors met in adjourned session Saturday, Sept. 23, there being present Wm. H. Brown, presiding, Jas. T. Casey, Joseph M. Francis and John MacBain.

A communication was received from the Halfmoon Bay Realty Compnay, asking the board to assist in the maintenance of Arlington avenue in Oakleigh Park, in view of the fact that that popular highway was now being generally used by the public.

The communication was accepted and filed.

Brown reported that he had received bids for the bridge reported by him at the last meeting, the lowest of which was $470.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, it was ordered that the Surveyor build the bridge at a cost not to exceed $300.

MacBain made a partial report on the purchase of a lot for a new county jail and the matter will be further considered at the next meeting.

It was ordered that the entire board go to the coastside to investigate certain claims in the Fifth Road District.

Chairman Brown reported that he was awaiting the arrival of the District Attorney in order to make arrangements regarding the Hillsborough road. On motion of Francis, seconded by Brwn, he was given further time.

MacBain was given authority to replank the Middlefield road bridge, on motion of Francis, seconded by Casey.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Francis, Casey was given authority to repair the platform in front of the post office at San Bruno.

Charles N. Kirkbride, H. C. Tuchsen and Mrs. Henry C. Finkler addressed the board in support of an application for assistance for a county exhibit in the Portola celebration.

It was the sense of the board that $250 be appropriated for that purpose.

Adjourned to Tuesday, Sept. 2d.

Manager and Secretary Resign.

Manager L. E. Fuller and Secretary Frank Eksward of the San Mateo County Development Association handed in their resignations Tuesday night at San Mateo to the board of governors of the association. It was declared that there had been no friction and that the resignations were due solely to the fact that the two men were going to devote their energies to another line of endeavor. The resignations were accepted and the work of Fuller and Eksward highly praised by the board.

TRYING TO SAVE NECKS OF THE JOY-RIDERS.

For the purpose of regulating traffic at the corner of Main street and Broadway, a white line one foot wide has been painted on the pavement midway between curbs, and vehicles will be required to keep to the right of this line when turning the corner. Circles along the line make it more distinct and enable drivers to see the distance to be kept from the center. On each curb white marks have also been placed about fifty feet from the corners, and autos and other vehicles will not be allowed to stand between these marks and the corner of the two streets. Several of the other cities and towns in the state have adopted these marks as a precaution against accidents, and to prevent cutting close to curbs when turning corners.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

TIME TO CALL A HALT.

Such dastardly crimes as those recently witnessed in the hop fields at Wheatland are a disgrace to the State of California. The shooting down of innocent men, resistence to the authority of the law and the destruction of property is nothing less than anarchy of the rankest kind.

Whatever of possible sympathy may have existed in the public mind for the I. W. W. and men of their ilk has been dispelled by this act. The employees of the hop yards may have had grievances, and many of them. The sanitary conditions among which they worked may have been almost intolerable and the wages far less than the work should have demanded; but these can not be considered as justifying murder and law-defiance. Had they gained their demands, a victory won through such methods would not be a victory, but a shame.

If the followers of the I. W. W. expect to gain favor with the public, they must discard such methods; they must crush the spirit that calls for the shedding of blood. They must learn that such methods will not be tolerated in this country, for they do not represent the true American spirit. Every man is undoubtedly entitled to a living wage, but he has no right to take it by force. Until these people learn this lesson, there should be no hesitancy in employing every available force at the command of the state in the suppression of violence.

SONEWHAT RETROSPECTIVE.

The fact that institutions of various kinds are celebrating their 50th anniversaries in Redwood City, leads us to speculate that Redwood City is some aged so far as age of municipalities in California s concerned. Were wc in the effete and civilized east, the mere bagatelle of fifty years would go unnoticed but here where institutions are new the golden anniversary shows some degree of pioneership.

And speaking of pioneering Redwood City doesn't have to take a back seat with any of them for it was on the map when our great and glorious state was nursing out of its first bottle. It is true that its name was called Embarcadero then and that it was changed to Mezesville before the euphonious appelation of Redwood City was attached to it, but it was then just as it is now, right alongside of the Redwood City creek.

Moralizing about that creek we might say that there has been nighty little sickness bred by it. There have been some high class swimmers developed in it and when everything else is said and done the town of Redwood City is where it is because the Redwood City creek is where it is. And going further into our obituary we might have leave to remark that the Redwood creek is the same water way in which Jim Hannon, Bill King and the rest of us learned to paddle and float and then to swim.

But to get back to our menu card we should be right proud of our golden anniversary, it bespeaks age and respectability. And age and respectability are good assets for any community to possess.

REALTY COMPANY PUSHING LOCAL DEVELOPMENT WORK

The University Realty Company of Palo Alto has for a long time been engaged in a form of development activity with which few even among its clients are familiar.

In addition to their sales department, they have a development crew engaged in the building up of country properties. This work was begun a year ago upon the beautiful Geo. A. Pope estate at La Honda, when a large force of men was engaged under the supervision of The University Realty Company, to build roads and fences, make trails, clear brush and in a general way get the land into shape for the magnificent villa which Mr. Pope plans to build. About $10,000 has been spent on this one holding.

Recently A. Sonnicksen entered the employ of the company as its construction chief, and has at present a crew building roads upon the Los Tranoos Ranch, a three hundred acre place upon the Martinez road near Felt Lake. The old orchard is being taken out and improvements are being made so that the property will become a country estate somewhat on the order of the nearby Sharon place.

The company has been able to show clients large returns for the expenditure of a few hundred dollars, and has caused many thousands of dollars to be appropriated for development through their office. This is one of the most substantial ways of building up San Mateo and Santa Clara counties that could be devised, causing not only the employment of large numbers of working men and the expenditure of money, but the rendering more attractive for homes of large areas of land.

Rural Carrier Examination

A civil service examination will be held at this city on Saturday, September 27, for the position of rural letter carrier to fill a vacancy on a route from Redwood City and other vacancies in the county as they may occur. Only citizens of the United States who have their actual domicile in the territory supplied by an office in the county for which the examination is held will be admitted to the examination. Postmaster Price will give the necessary information regarding the examination.

Redwood City Lodge No. 168 F. & A. M., will hold a special meeting this evening for work in the first degree.

Stuart Frank and Father Lacombe sought the wilds of Portola during the early hours of Friday morning last in search of the fleet footed deer. They are both crack shots and expert hunters and consequently their numerous friends sharpened their appetities and had visions of venison steaks and chops. The two hunters after a long chase finally secured one buck (coon) each which they brought home as trophies of the hunt. While their friends were some what disappointed in failing to have their keene appetities appeased they were consoled in knowing that the coons were the largest ever killed in the county.

The Carnival-Bazar opens next Thursday at Hall of the Nativity, Menlo Park. The basket picnic of a week ago, one of the most perfect evening programs ever offered at Menlo Park, was a presage of what the nights of the Bazar will be. It is not to be a bazar, it is to be a Carnival-Bazar, with the accent on the "Carnival." Profit to those who are looking for profit, who approach everything (carnival included) from a business standpoint. Those in charge are prepared to deliver the goods if you have the price. Most of the choice selections of the San Francisco greater stores will be on hand and on sale for less money than you would be compelled to pay for them in the city itself—and besides, you save railroad fare. However, that much is for those who are looking to do business. You and I and the majority want a little fun thrown in with their Bazar shopping expedition. Pantomime, character sketches, confetti, carnival exuberance of spirit, pretty girls, charming matrons, clever and fun-making spielers, the auctioneer we had at the basket picnic, all will be on hand, and a variety of other attractions we cannot now tell you about not because you could not bear to hear them, every one is anxious to hear more and then some more about that Carnival-Bazar, but because the Times-Gazette editor assures us with all seriousness of manner that he must have space for political and county news, just as if you and I cared a continental about politics or affairs of state when there is a Carnival-Bazar on at Menlo. Really it is to laugh at the simplicity of editors. Do you really want to know some more about that Carnival? Say! did you read the announcement of two weeks ago in these very columns of a new daily paper to appear in Menlo Park? It was the topic of discussion from the serious minded of a great institution on Middlefield road down to the leading or one of the leading barber shops in Menlo Park. That's news to you, is it? Well, the originality and humor that could set the whole district by the ears that way is exactly the same originality and humor that will make the Carnival-Bazar of Sept. 4, 5 and 6 the biggest, the funniest and the most successful ever heard of on the peninsula. You did not suspect that new daily for Menlo Park is to be the official organ of the Bazar and that the advance sheet will appear promptly on the evening of Monday, September 1st. It will give you all possible information Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. A one-sheet advance page will be mailed you. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday a four-page paper, bursting with news and overflowing with fun, will be sold you on the floor of the Hall each evening of the Bazar at 10c the copy. Then the ghost walks at the end of this week, put aside all you can for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. You'll be sore if you don't, and the laugh will be on you.

Divorce Contest Finally Decided.

The divorce case entitled Carl Benson against Gerda Benson that has occupied the attention of the courts in various ways since 1908 was decided in favor of the defendant, Mrs. Benson, last Friday. Benson first brought suit in Martinez in 1908 Mrs. Benson filed a cross complaint. The case was tried before Judge Gesford of Napa who denied both parties a divorce but awarded the custody of the children to the mother and ordered Benson to pay $20 a month for their support and also gave the income of the community property at Richmond to Mrs. Benson. The case was appealed to the Supreme Court by Benson and that tribunal reversed the lower court owing to some error in preparing the judgment. The higher tribunal handed down its decision on November 1, 1912. During all that time the mother had the custody of the children and supported them mainly by her own earnings. After the Supreme Court decision Benson kidnapped the three children. Mrs. Benson made an effort to secure them and failed. She then employed John D. Willard, the well-known attorney, and began proceedings for a divorce in the Superior Court of this County charging her husband with cruelty. Simutaneously Benson began a suit for a divorce on the same grounds in Martinez. Attorney Willard secured a dismissal of the suit here and at once applied for a change of venue at Martinez and had the case transferred from Contra Costa county to the Superior Court of this county for trial. The case began last spring before Judge Buck and was bitterly fought by both parties. The children that had been in hiding were ordered into court by Judge Buck and the meeting of the little ones and their mother in open court created a sensation. The scene was indeed a pathetic one. The court after hearing the mass of testimony took the case under advisement and last Friday finally determined the suit. Mrs. Benson was awarded the custody of the children and $45 a month for their support. She was also given half of the community property at Richmond valued at about $18,000. The children have been stopping with Mrs. Oliver in this city. Mrs. Benson is the house keeper for M. Fleishacker at Woodside. It was a vigorously contested suit that for a time occupied the attention of the courts of two counties. A mother's love for her children finally triumphed.

New Actions in Superior Court.

Eugene Mourot has commenced an action in the Superior Court against R. F. Chilcott, administrator of the estate of Marie J. Mourot, deceased, to quiet title to lots 2 and 3, block 88, Eastern Addition to the town of Redwood City.

The couple was married at San Francisco on February 16, 1903. There are four minor children as a result of the union. Plaintiff alleges in her complaint that Gilgour is earning $150 a month. She asks for $75 a month for the support of herself and children, attorney fees in the sum of $100 and costs in the sum of $25.

Mary Madonna has brought suit for divorce in the Superior Court against her husband, Biaggio Madonna, on the grounds of extreme curuelty and failure to provide. The couple was married at Halfmoon Bay on October 5, 1901. There is no community property but there are three minor children. Plaintiff asks that she be permitted to visit children without hindrence or annoyance, twice a week and that she be allowed to take the children out at reasonable times.

Addie P. Tripp has brought suit in the Superior Court against H. L. Rixford, as administrator of the estate of Matthew A. Parkhum, deceased, to quiet title to 19 acres of land at Woodside, known as the Tripp property.

J. B. Coryell, the Atherton capitalist and clubman, has brought suit in the Superior Court against Cashel Bros. of Palo Alto to recver the sum off $1022.70 on a breach of contract. On April 15, 1912, plaintiff and defendant entered into a contract whereby defendant agreed to furnish all the necessary material and labor for the installtion of a heating system for six hothouses belonging to Coryell at Atherton. The sum of $1136.67 was to have been paid for the work when completed. Plaintiff alleges in his complaint that he paid the full amount of the agreement but that defendants failed to comply with the terms of the contract in not putting in hot water coils of a proper size. On account of this the heat did not pass through the pipes freely, causing injury to plaintiff's orchids. Coryell was compelled to employ other plumbers to complete the work at a cost of $1022.70 He asks for a judgment for that amount.

CELEBRATES ITS GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Redwood City Lodge No. 168, Free and Accepted Masons Marks Half Century of Its Existence

An event not only of special interest to members of the Masonic fraternity, but one which marks an important epoch in local fraternal history was observed Thursday evening when members of Redwood City Lodge No. 168, Free and Accepted Masons, gathered from various portions of th state to join in an observance of the Golden Jubilee of that Lodge. That love of their home Lodge is strong in the hearts of the members of Redwood City Lodge is evidenced by the fact that out of a total membership, some of whom are dispersed to almost every quarter of the globe, a full 100 found means of being present to enjoy the festivities attending this, to them, momentuous occasion.

And right royally were those who had traveled from afar repaid for their attendance, for the social festivities incident to the celebration were on a scale never before attempted in this city. For several months past the Lodge has been preparing for this occasion, the details of the work being under the direction of a committee composed of the following members: J. E. Ensor, chairman; F. K. Towne, secretary; E. B. Fox, treasurer, and C. G. Landscheit, L. P. Behrens, E. H. Werder and R. F. Chilcott, each of whom has devoted himself assiduously to the work.

As a prelude to an account of the observances incident to the occasion, it will undoubted be of general public interest to briefly relate the circumstances leading up to the organization of the Lodge, which was completed just 50 years ago. While members of the Masonic fraternity have made their homes in San Mateo county from the date of its first settlement, they each held membrship in the lodges located in the various sections of the country from which they came and there was little to promote a close fraternal communion. It was not until about the year 1861 that the need of closer union began to be manifest. From this time the plan of the formation of a local lodge began to be discussed, and at various times conferences were held among those directly interested. It was not until June 28th, 1863, however that plans took definite form, when a meeting was held in what was then the only public hall in town, located in the upper story of the county courthouse. At that meeting the members of the Order present resolved to take definite steps and a petition was formulated requesting the Grand Master of the State to grant a dispensation permitting the formation of a Lodge. This petition bore the names of the following gentlemen, some of whom were prominent at that time in the public affairs of the county: Frederick E. Bartlett, Samuel M. Cook, John M. Allen, Thomas W. Lathrop, Andrew Teague, William H. Jones, James Hatch, Benjamin T. Gillum, John Johnston and William H. Johnston.

It was not until August 28, or two months later, that the dispensation asked for was finally received, bearing the signature of Judge William C. Belcher, then Grand Master of the State. On that date the final organization of the Lodge was completed with the following as its first officers: F. E. Bartlett, master; S. M. Cook, senior worden; J. M. Allen, junior warden; D. W. Aldrich, treasurer; T. W. Lathrop, secretary; Andrew Teague, senior deacon; W. H. Jones, junior deacon; B. T. Gillum, tyler. At that time the name of "San Mateo Lodge" was adopted as most distinctive of its location, the members seemingly little realizing the wonderful advance which was to be made by San Mateo county. The Lodge continued under this name until the session of the Grand Lodge in 1905, when the formation of other lodges in the county made it advisable to change the name to "Redwood City Lodge;" in order that its location might be more definitely defined, and by which name it has since been known. Since the formation of the Lodge those who have occupied the Master's chair, with the dates of their service, were as follows: F. E. Bartlett, 1863-1864; T. W. Lathrop, 1865-1866-1867-1868-1875; S. M. Cook, 1869, 1872- 1873; N. Dennis, 1870; H. N. Nutting, 1874; P. P. Chamberlain, 1874, 1886, 1887, 1888, 1889, 1890, 1896, 1897, 1900, 1901; W. R. Thomas, 1876; H. N. Bishop, 1877-1878; Jonathan White, 1879; G. W. Green, 1880-1881; G. W. Fox, 1882; A. Hanson, 1883-1884-1885; B. A. Rankin, 1891, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1895; Jesse Penton, 1898-1899; John W. Poole, 1902; C. G. Landscheit, 1903-1904; T. O. Heydenfeldt, 1905-1906; F. K. Towne, 1907-1908; Roy W. Cloud, 1909-1910; E. H. Werder, 1911; R. F. Chilcott, 1912; J. E. Ensor, 1913.

The present officers of the Lodge are: J. E. Ensor, worshipful master; E. H. V. Hoenck, senior warden; G. W. McNulty, junior warden; L. P. Behrens, treasurer; J. E. Harris, secretary; Rev. David Crabtree, chaplain; W. H. Kelso, senior deacon; O. M. Carrington, junior deacon; J. J. Rogers, marshal; G. H. Leary and Charles Jacobus, stewards; J. W. Gelnnan, tyler.

The lodgeroom presented a most attractive appearance, the decorations being confined to handsome cut flowers, vases of which ornamented the several official stations. From far and near members of the lodge had been gathering during the day, until when the lodge was opened by Worshipful Master J. E. Ensor shortly after 8 o'clock there were fully 100 members in the room. Something more than an hour was devoted to a session of the lodge, recounting the history of its organization and incidents of its work during the past 50 years.

Notable among the speakers was Bradford Webster of Live Oak Lodge, No. 61, of San Francisco, Inspector of the 31st Masonic district, who devoted himself to congratulatory lines. This was followed by an address by Alexander Peers, now a resident of Mayfield, one of the oldest living members of the lodge, with which he has been connected for a little more than 47 years, in which many interesting incidents of its early work and pioneer struggles were recounted. The duty of reviewing the actual history of the lodge from its organization to this date was laid upon Charles G. Landscheit, inspector of this Masonic district, and right well was it performed, the work of many of its most active members being traced from their earliest Masonic connection. While many of the older members, as well as some of those whose affiliation with the lodge bore more recent date, were particularly mentioned, Mr. Landscheit especially dwelt upon the splendid Masonic record of P. P. Chamberlain, whose active work with his associates has been continuous for nearly 47 years, and to whom had fallen the unusual Masonic distinction of having served the lodge as its Master for ten of the fifty years of its existence. Called upon to speak for himself, Mr. Chamberlain seemed especially imbued with the spirit of the occasion and in an unusually happy mood recounted his earlier Masonic experiences in the days when the means of intercommunication were far from as rapid and convenient as at this time.

A particularly pleasing incident occurred just before closing of the lodge, when Past Master Frank K. Towne presented the lodge with a handsome set of silver "working tools" in handsome morocco case. None of the members had been taken into the confidence of Mr. Towne and the presentation came as a total surprise, both to officers and members. In making presentation of the valuable gift Mr. Towne spoke feelingly of his connection with the organization and his affection for the lodge, of which he has for years been a most active member. On behalf of the lodge the gift was accepted by Worshipful Master Ensor with expressions of appreciation both for the gift and Mr. Towne.

Following the closing of the session of the lodge an hour was devoted to social intercourse, during which old acquaintances were renewed. Shortly before 11 o'clock the members formed in procession under the direction of J. J. Rogers, Marshal of the lodge, and marched to the Hotel Sequoia, where a splendid banquet was served, followed by entertaining after-dinner talks by R. G. Guyett of San Francisco, C. G. Landscheit, Roy W. Cloud, S. P. McCrea, and Douglas Crane of San Francisco. Thus ended an evening that will long stand out as a pleasant landmark in local Masonic history.

LOCAL IMPROVEMENT CLUB HOLDS MEETING

Many Improvements Planned for Prominent Redwood City Residence Section

There was a large attendance at the regular monthly meeting of the Dingee Park Improvement Club held Monday night. Mr. George H. Irving and Mr. E. S. Tanner, president and secretary respectively of the George H. Irving Company, had been invited to attend the meeting and address the members regarding their plans for the development of Redwood Highlands (formerly Dingee Park.)

Mr. Irving stated that they would have been down to address the club sooner about their plans but had only acquired title the week before. As to the change of name he stated that this was done in accordance with the desires of the club and of various residents on the property. Most people passing through Redwood on the train and seeing the elevation of 8 feet on the depot get the impression that the entire district is very low. In as much as the property to the west of the county road rises very rapidly and attains at the rear of the property a height of over a hundred feet, it was felt that the use of Redwood Highlands, which had been suggested by some of the club members would help to dissipate the incorrect popular opinion as to all the near-by property being low.

In regard to replatting some of the 70 foot lots into 50 foot frontages, Mr. Irving stated that this was done solely with the best interests of the property in mind. As it now stands the class of buyers who can afford a 70 or 75 foot lot is very limited and has a tendency to retard the rapid sale of the property. Examples of fine development of 50 rsident sections were given in the Hayward Park tract and the Clarmont Tract in Berkeley and other equally attractive places. Mr. Irving stated that no lots would be less than 50 foot frontage and would scale from that up to 75 foot frontage.

Speaking of the attitude of the company as to restrictions, Mr. Irving stated that it was the intention of the company not only to continue the present restrictions in force but to include additional ones all of which would be beneficial to the property.

The members of the club were gratified to hear that the new owners had donated a large strip of land to straingten out the Whipple road tangle. It will now be possible for the trustees to improve this street which will be a big factor in welding together the beautiful districts of Redwood Highlands and Wellesley Park.

It is also planned some time in the near future, to endeavor to have the Alameda de las Pulgas open from its present terminal across the Woodside road which would enable automobilists to run through the property and would be a great factor in building up the section west of the county road.

Mr. Irving in closing stated that their selection of Redwood Highlands was made after most careful investigation of the peninsula property and that Redwood was undoubtedly destined to a greater and more rapid development than any other point on the peninsula.

Mr. Tanner spoke at length upon the great value of the harbor possibilities. He called the attention of the members to the fact that very few points have been so favored by nature as Redwood, and he quoted the words of Col. Irish that where ship and rail meet, there would great industries thrive. He called attention to the fact that Oakland's rapid growth was largely of only a few years time, that Richmond, 10 years ago,g was but a very small town, and that Redwood City has equal opportunities and therefore its great future was inevitable.

Mr. Merrill was asked to address the club members and he told them it would be but a short time before they would see the dirt flying in good shape for the harbor project. He stated that it had taken considerable time to overcome certain obstacles and that within a few weeks big developments would be seen; that contracts have been closed for the earth necessary for the extension of the spur track.

It was suggested by some of the members that Dingee Park Improvemen Club was intended for the benefit of all the residents livwest of the County road and that invitations be extended to the residents of that district to unite with the club. It is planned to select some new name with wider scope for the club, and this matter will probably be taken up when the residents of these sections are heard from. It was realized that in unity there is strength, and the greater number pulling together the greater would be the results.

STANFORD YOUNG MEN TO TAKE CROSS-COUNTRY HIKE

The members of the cabinet of the Stanford Young Men's Christian Association are planning on taking a "hike" to Searsville lake today, to spend the day in a preliminary conference getting in touch with the work of the coming semester.

Special attention is to be given the employment bureau this year, in an attempt to furnish employment for as many self-supporting students as possible. At the present time the number of applications for work exceed by far the number of jobs that have been listed with the employment bureau of the Y. M. C. A. The chairman of the bureau will greatly appreciate it if any one needing student labor would communicate with him, either by writing to the Employment Bureau, Y. M. C. A., Stanford University, or telephoning Local 32 and have their jobs filled by competent men. The aim of this bureau is to fill the jobs with the best men that can be secured.

No fee is charged the employers or employees, as the purpose of this bureau is to serve the self-supporting students.

Fined for Court Contempt.

George Bardoni, a coastside farmer, was fined $25 for contempt of court by Judge Geo. H. Buck Monday. A case is pending in the Superior Court regarding the water of Apanolio creek, near Halfmoon Bay, and Judge Buck ruled that until the case was decided the defendants and plaintiffs should divert the water alternately. Bardoni, who with a number of other farmers, is named as defendant, diverted water from the creek at a time when it was to have been used by the plaintiffs.
